

Application Instructions

Instructions: New England Law | Boston

Admissions Requirements

- Law degree or equivalent from a university or law school outside the United States
- Minimum score of 100 on the Internet-based test for TOEFL or a minimum score of 7.0 for IELTS. (For more information, see the section on TOEFL/IELTS below.)

Application Deadline

Please send your completed application form and all supporting materials to New England Law | Boston by the application deadline.

Checklist

The following must be included with your application:

- Completed application form
- Personal statement
- Letter of recommendation
- Transcript and transcript analysis from your law school (see below)
- TOEFL or IELTS (If English is not your first language or your undergraduate degree was not received from an English-speaking institution.)
- Statement of financial proof (if needed)
- Visa information (see below)

Application Requirements

Application Form

Please complete and file your application form by the deadline. It is recommended that you submit your application materials online through the Law School Admissions Council (LSAC) website.

We will notify you when your application has been received. If applying electronically, the LSAC will send you confirmation that your application has been submitted. Do not send an additional application by mail if you are applying electronically.

Personal Statement

Each applicant must submit a personal statement as part of the admissions process. Because the Admissions Committee does not conduct personal interviews, this law school requirement is the applicant's opportunity to address committee members. The statement should emphasize particular aspects of your background, suitability for admission, or the basis of your interest in our LLM Program. Applicants may address personal characteristics and circumstances; strengths; work experiences; extracurricular activities; ethnic, economic, and educational background; or any other topic that will help the committee evaluate you.

Letter of Recommendation

Each applicant must submit one letter of recommendation.

Faxed or photocopied recommendation letters are not accepted. There are two options for submitting letters of recommendation:

1. New England Law | Boston recommends that your letters be submitted through the LSAC Letter of Recommendation Service. Letters submitted through the service are copied and sent to New England Law with a CAS report.
2. New England Law accepts letters submitted directly to the school. The envelope must be sealed with the recommender's signature written over the seal.

Transcript and Transcript Analysis

An official transcript from the law school or university that granted, or is granting, your law degree must be submitted along with your completed application form and all other required documents. If your law degree is from an institution outside the United States or Canada, it must be certified as the equivalent of a US law degree. We recommend that applicants register with LSAC's LLM Credential Assembly Service. For a fee, the LSAC will collect, authenticate, and distribute a student's university records and TOEFL score, if required. The LSAC service serves only to authenticate non-United States or non-Canadian credentials that are needed in addition to a completed admission application.

TOEFL / IELTS (if required)

If English is not your first language or if your undergraduate degree was not received from an English-speaking institution, you must take either the Test of English as a Foreign Language \(TOEFL\) or International English Language Testing System \(IELTS\) and receive a minimum score of 100 on the Internet-based test for TOEFL or a minimum score of 7.0 for IELTS.

You must contact the Educational Testing Service to request that your TOEFL score be sent to the LSAC. The LSAC's TOEFL code for the JD CAS is 8395. You'll find more details on the LSAC website.

Candidates who receive a score below the required minimum on all English proficiency exams are still encouraged to apply to the program because we use a holistic approach when reviewing applications.

Statement of Financial Proof

If you enter the United States as an international student, U.S. immigration authorities require that you demonstrate you have sufficient funds for your travel to and from the United States and for tuition and living expenses while you attend school. If your application for admission is accepted, you will have to provide detailed financial documentation to obtain immigration authorization. You must include a statement of financial proof with your application.

Visa Information

New England Law | Boston offers assistance with the visa process. Entry requirements and visa information are available at:

- Visa Information for International Applicants
- United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement website

Character and Fitness

Qualifications for Admission to the Bar

In addition to a bar examination, there are character, fitness, and other qualifications for admission to the bar in every U.S. jurisdiction. Applicants are encouraged to determine the requirements for any jurisdiction in which they intend to seek admission by contacting the jurisdiction. Addresses for all relevant agencies are available through the National Conference of Bar Examiners. Bar examiners may require information similar to that requested in the last two questions in this section and considerable additional information as part of their character review as a prerequisite to taking the bar examination. The fullest possible disclosure to the bar is recommended. Admission to or graduation from law school does not guarantee a registrant that he/she will be eligible to sit for a bar examination and/or be admitted to the practice of law.

Have you ever been placed on warning, probation, suspended, or dismissed from any educational institution, including law school, either for academic or disciplinary reasons? If yes, submit an explanation as an attachment.
